Client Highlight: DJ Korn

DJ Korn has been married to his wife Debbie for 40 years. They have two children and five grandchildren, who they enjoy visiting in Asheville, North Carolina, and Denver, Colorado. He smiles the most when he sees family or friends, especially if it's been a while since seeing them.

DJ enjoys playing tennis, taking walks, and listening to live music. He also likes watching Pittsburgh Pirates baseball. His favorite food and beverage are burgers and beer.

During college, DJ worked as a summer cop and garbage man on Cape Cod. He went on to serve in the Marine Corps. Later, he owned several businesses, including Jethro's Restaurant, along with working 14 years at F&M College, his alma mater. Through playing sports and owning his businesses, he learned the importance of persistence. A favorite quote is one from Ben Franklin: "Well done is better than well said."

DJ's favorite thing about attending Landis Adult Day Services is meeting new people and he is especially appreciative of the friendly staff.

"It's a sure sign of summer if the chair gets up when you do."
- Walter Winchell

"Summer is the annual permission slip to be lazy."
- Regina Brett

Lazy, crazy, hazy days of summer . . . they are here and so are we! We are loaded with programs for this time of year. The sentences that follow are about what August has in store for us:

1. Do you know the Power of Lemonade;  it's nothing to be sour about.
2. What do you know about Sunflowers and Sunshine;  we will shine a light on that.
3. Smokey the Bear and Campfire Songs;  only you can prevent forest fires and silly songs.
4. Root Beer has us full of foam and that's just Peachey!

Hey, we need your humor. On August 17, we want to hear your best jokes! Bring in one or two or three of your best jokes (clean ones only) and let's laugh together.

Staff Highlight: Christy Carpenter

Christy Carpenter serves as the director of Landis Adult Day Services. She is married and has three children and four grandchildren, along with a cat named Jimmy. Christy and her husband recently traveled to Montana to attend a friend's wedding on a ranch in Missoula, then they went on to explore Yellowstone National Park. This was her husband's first time on an airplane! Visiting more places in the USA is on her bucket list.

Christy enjoys spending time with her family and doing crafts. Her ideal day off work includes sleeping in, and if the weather is good, she enjoys sitting beside water somewhere. Her go-to snacks are popcorn and apples with peanut butter.

Christy's first car was a Honda Accord. That car and all her subsequent cars have been named Bessy, and she keeps good luck charms in her car console.

Christy enjoys working at Landis Adult Day Services because she likes seeing clients have a good day while here, along with recognizing the importance of the respite that it provides their caregivers! Adult Day Services provides a special service and Christy is proud to be a part of that with our amazing team!

SENIOR SCAM SAFETY TIPS

1. REMOVE NUMBER AND HOME ADDRESS FROM DIRECTORIES

Remove your senior loved one's number from directories and add them to no call lists to ensure that no telemarketers call. If someone would call saying they were, you would know it was likely a scam.

2. DO NOT GIVE OUT PERSONAL INFORMATION OVER THE PHONE

Unless you have initiated the phone call, do not give out your social security number, card number, bank information, or your medicare information over the phone.

3. BE WARY ABOUT MONEY INQUIRIES FROM STRANGERS AND FAMILY

Telemarketing scams targeted at seniors are very creative; many pray on seniors' kindness and willingness to give by impersonating family members. See popular scams on www.ncoa.org.

4. ASK THEM TO SEND YOU PROOF BEFORE GIVING THEM ANYTHING

Ask them for their full name, address, and business name. Ask them to send this information to you in the mail. Before giving them anything, do a quick internet search. If you cannot find proof of existence, you know it's a scam.

5. IF YOU THINK YOU WERE A VICTIM: CALL ADULT PROTECTION SERVICES

Waiting can only make it worse, call APS (1-800-677-1116) to get protection and guidance on next steps. Make sure to cancel or freeze any accounts associated with the fraud.
